Mr. and Mrs. Luther Spaulding entertained a company of ten at an oyster supper on Monday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Fowler, Bert Sweet and Mrs. Mary Sweet of Lebanon, Judge and Mrs. A. C. Kneeland, Miss Ida Cummings and Miss Cummings of New Britain, Mr. Spaulding of this place. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. C. Leonard has a recent visitor with her parents in Colchester.

Mrs. Daniel Spaulding and son are visiting Miss Olive Sullivan.

OBITUARY.

John C. Sturtevant, of New London, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter B. Starr, on Tuesday, following an illness from Bright's disease. Mr. Sturtevant was born in Germany and came to this country several years ago. He was 71 years old and was survived by several years ago.

Persons. Mrs. A. C. Williams and son, Chauncey, of Lebanon, and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Stark of Goshen spent Tuesday with their brother, Luther Spaulding.

Henry Kneeland of Columbia spent Tuesday with his brother, Judge A. C. Kneeland and Edwin P. Kneeland.

Albert Williams and children are all sick with the grip.

HANOVER.

James E. Vickridge, former Norwich Merchant, Celebrates 80th Birthday.

A goodly company of friends met at the home of James E. Vickridge last Saturday afternoon to celebrate his eighty-sixth birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.

Nearly fifty years ago Mr. Vickridge was the leading dry goods merchant in Norwich. He is still active and cheerful in disposition and an interesting host.

Mrs. Frank Way of East Glastonbury and Mrs. Annie D. Covell of East Windsor Hill, with their children, have been visiting their former homes here.

The burial of Oliver S. Bennett was made on Friday afternoon. Rev. C. H. Peck conducted the services at the cemetery.

SOUTH KILLINGLY.

Rumor That Panther is About—Grip Poisoning—Prospect of R. F. D. Service.

It is reported that a wild animal resembling a panther was seen in the vicinity of Horse Hill. It may be the same brute that ate the woman's cat from here whose bones were found in a lot, as reported in last week's paper.

The persons suspected of robbing Alfred Hyde's grist mill were arrested last Saturday and at a trial this week were acquitted. Now they are to sue the town of Plainfield for defamation of character, naming the sum of $50,000.

Friends of Prof. Horace M. Hovey are sorry to hear that he was seriously injured by an explosion of chemicals in his high school building on Monday. The explosion occurred about 10 o'clock.

The last one to suffer was a valuable one belonging to Gilbert Graves. Ninety-five names have been secured to get an R. F. D. route from Danielson through this place, a part of Sterling, Plainfield, Waterbury and Brooklyn. Prospects are good for its early establishment.

Grange Supper. Highland grange gave a bean supper in their dining room last Saturday evening. The supper was a success and a goodly audience enjoyed the singing by Mr. Burns, the baritone, selections given by Aden Tillingshaast on his phonograph, and speaking by Secretary Aden Tillingshaast, and the master of this grange, Joseph B. Smith.

Funeral of Charles M. Backus, Oldest Man in Town—Reception and Parting Gift for Pastor and His Wife—Grange May Build Hall.

The funeral of Charles M. Backus of South Chaplin, the oldest man in town, nearly 81, was held at his home on Friday afternoon the last week at 1 o'clock. Rev. Andrew J. Small, pastor of the Congregational church, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Walter E. Lanphear of Mansfield Center. A quartette sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "After." The bearers were George Hunt of Pittsfield, Mass., George Pickop of New Britain and Frank and Joel Backus of Goshen.

Charles M. Backus was born in South Chaplin, Mass., on March 15, 1815, and came to Chaplin when two years old. He spent his life in the state of New York. For a number of years he kept a grocery store in South Chaplin. He was one of the oldest members of the Willamantic Venerable club. He was married three times, his last wife being living, also, at age 80.

His wife, Mrs. Mary Adams, was born in South Chaplin, Mass., on March 15, 1815, and came to Chaplin when two years old. He spent his life in the state of New York.
